

Thinkfinity.org Train the Trainer Workshop

This two-day hands-on workshop provides certification as a Field Trainer for Thinkfinity.org. The Thinkfinity program provides free, standards-based, high quality online resources. Participants will be prepared to customize and conduct training sessions at their districts. Attendees will walk away with their own classroom integration plan, site/district training plan, and valuable resources to enhance student learning.

Target Audience: K-12 teachers, professional development staff, media specialists, literacy program managers, and after school program leaders.

Prerequisites: Basic computer and word processing skills.

Fee: There is no fee. This training is sponsored and funded by the Verizon Foundation
